

Great Design

High style doesn't have to cost the moon. On the following pages, interior designers, architects and our editors have chosen an eclectic array of items—from games to magnifying glasses to wallpaper—that prove brilliant design comes not only in all shapes and sizes but in all price ranges, too.

Busatti Dinnerware

Hand-painted pieces by Busatti, from $20 at Tuscan Hills (609-921-9015), "allow you to coordinate the table with the season, occasion and mood," says John Barman.

Small Bawana Vase

The textured ceramic vase, handmade in Thailand, has a tribal feel. Perfect for sea grass or a palm leaf, it comes in two sizes, starting at $90, from Nest (212-337-3441).

Louis Vuitton Luggage Locks

"They're architectural, streamlined and convenient," Penny Drue Baird says of the $24 luggage locks, available in palladium or brass (866-884-8866).

Aduki Light by Mathmos

From the creators of the lava lamp comes a $65 modular light that changes colors. "It has enormous style," says Geoffrey Bradford. From Felissimo (www.felissimo.com).
