

Choice
Dream Linens

*Uncovering the very best—soft, sumptuous,
and absolutely indulgent*

By Ellen Schofield

MATTEO

Vintage Linen Gauze Sheet Set

The fabrics for Matteo's Egyptian cotton and linen sheets are manufactured in Italy but cut, sewn, and embellished in Los Angeles. The linen then undergoes a special washing that creates exceptionally soft sheets. Matteo's Vintage Linen Gauze collection is 100 percent linen with cotton gauze trim.

Suggested retail: King Sheet Set: $410

www.matteohome.com

BUSATTI

Ducale Sheet Set in Ivory

Founded in the Tuscan hills in 1842, today Busatti still thrives in the village of Anghiari and still uses Industrial Revolution-era shuttle looms that produce especially soft fabric. The Ducale collection in 100 percent Egyptian cotton is hand-finished and embellished with a pearlescent sateen border.

Suggested retail: King Sheet Set: $375

www.tuscan-hills.com

DEBORAH SHARPE

Custom Embroidery in Chain-link Design

Deborah Sharpe is a source for fine linens in Los Angeles. Everything is custom-made—even pajamas can be ordered to match a client's bed. Choose from hundreds of embroidery designs ranging from sleek and modern to ornate and lavish.

Suggested retail: King Sheet Set: $1,280

www.deborahsharpe.com

MUSE

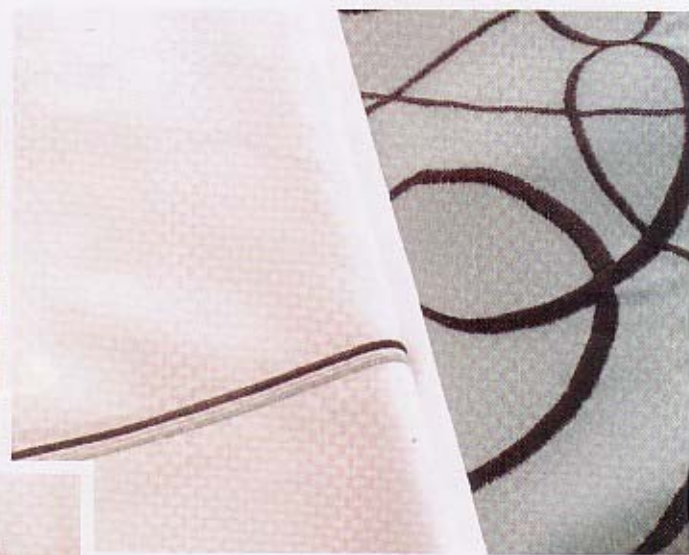

Royal Sheet Set with Double Satin Stitch in Light Blue and Brown and Cashmere Sham in Robin's Egg Blue

Offering 100 percent cashmere duvet covers and custom embroidered sheets, Muse mixes "modern sensibility with Old World fabrication."

The line is made to order from the best Italian fabrics.

Suggested retail: King Sheet Set: $1,440 | Sham: $525

www.musegroup.com

LEFT TO RIGHT:

Matteo, Busatti, Deborah Sharpe, Muse